

AIGA Minnesota Scholarship

The $1,500 AIGA Minnesota Scholarship is made possible through AIGA Minnesota and its members. We're one of the largest chapters in the nation, serving nearly 1,450 members throughout Minnesota and the upper Midwest.

LARSEN

Larsen Design Scholarship

The $1,000 Larsen Design Scholarship is made possible through a donation by Larsen — a design, branding, marketing, and interactive agency serving clients nationwide from offices in Minneapolis and San Francisco.

CLOCKWORK ACTIVE MEDIA SYSTEMS

Clockwork Scholarship

The $1,000 Clockwork Scholarship is made possible through a donation by Clockwork — a digital agency focused on delivering interactive strategy, creative, technology and design of interactive experiences to clients and their customers around the world.

This application form submits your entry for both the AIGA Minnesota Scholarship and the Larsen Design Scholarship. To be eligible for the Clockwork Scholarship a minimum of three interactive work submissions must be presented. Applicants for these awards will be judged on a portfolio of work and the response in their written essay. One recipient will be chosen for each award; scholarships will be presented following the Portfolio 1 on 1 panel discussion on April 20, 2012. Winners are expected to be present to receive their awards.

The judges will be evaluating eligible candidates on the following criteria:

Conceptual Skill: Ability to develop ideas beyond the basics of an assignment

Creative Skill: Expression of innovation and imagination

Crafting: Attention to detail, execution, and presentation

Communication: Ability to communicate in the written component

Additional Judging Criteria for the Clockwork Scholarship: Ability to leverage interactive technology to support the creative mission
